

NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY
Office of The Director
Washington 25, D. C.
16 October 1957

Dear Allen:

The National Security Agency will soon be relocated at its new operations building at Fort George G. Meade, Maryland.

I would enjoy an opportunity to show our new Headquarters to you, and members of your staff, at any date and time convenient to you.

Would you be kind enough to let me know if you have the time to do this?

Sincerely,

JOHN A. SAMFORD
Lieutenant General, USAF
Director

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DULLES

Mr. [] of NSA delivered this to me yesterday for subsequent delivery to you. Mr. [] explained that it is an invitation from General Samford to visit the new NSA building at Fort Meade. He also said they would be glad to have any number of people you care to bring along and suggested that sometime prior to 28 October would be better, if it is convenient with you.

I would recommend that you accept this invitation and I would like very much to go along and take a few of our people. I would estimate that it would take approximately three hours out of your schedule (one hour out, one hour there and one hour back).

[]
